A material known for its durability and warm aesthetic, Unlacquered Brass has a rich history that dates back to the Victorian Era and is returning in popularity to match today’s modern environments. Whether allowed to naturally tarnish over time or be polished to restore its brilliance, this timeless finish will enhance the look of any setting.
FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Provides warmth of color and extraordinary durability
- Can be coordinated with a variety of textures and patterns to create a distinct look
- Complements an array of design styles from traditional to modern
- Available across a wide range of KALLISTA® collections as a full suite solution

To learn more about Unlacquered Brass, please visit KALLISTA.COM/finishes.